

‘CHILD FRIENDLY YOUTH JUSTICE?’
CONFERENCE
25TH SEPTEMBER 2017

09.00 - 09.40	Registration and coffee
09.45 – 09.50	Welcome from SCYJ, NAYJ and CCGSJ
09.50 – 10.10	The Lammy Review – (representative tbc)
10.10 - 11.30	Plenary 1: Child Friendly Youth Justice in Research, Policy and Practice <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Professor Lesley McAra – Chair of Penology, University of Edinburgh▪ Charlie Taylor – Chair, Youth Justice Board▪ Andy Peaden, Head of Service, Leeds YOS
11:40 - 12.40	Conference parallel session A (sessions 1 - 4)
12.40 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 - 14.20	Conference parallel session B (sessions 5 - 8)
14.30 - 15.30	Conference parallel session C (sessions 1 - 4)
15.30 - 15.50	Tea and cake
15.50 – 17.00	Plenary 2: The Prospects for Child Friendly Youth Justice <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Professor Jo Phoenix – Chair in Criminology, The Open University Followed by a panel discussion with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Ben Byrne – Manager, Surrey Youth Support Service▪ Penelope Gibbs – Director, Transform Justice▪ Dr Patricia Gray - Associate Professor (Reader) in Criminology and Criminal Justice, Plymouth University
17.00	Close Drinks reception at the Institute of Criminology

‘CHILD FRIENDLY YOUTH JUSTICE?’
CONFERENCE - 25TH SEPTEMBER 2017
PARALLEL SESSION OVERVIEW

1. Youth custody

Dr Caroline Andow, University of Winchester / Ben Byrne, Manager, Surrey Youth Support Service

The characteristics and trajectories of 50 children in secure accommodation in Surrey

Dr Di Hart, Freelance consultant

An analysis of proposals to reform youth custodial provision

Dr Laura Janes, The Howard League for Penal Reform

Why a participatory rights-based approach is the best way to protect children in trouble with the law

2. The voice of the child

Professor Stephen Case, Loughborough University

Promoting participation as child-friendly positive youth justice

Anna Christina-Jones, GMYJUP, Manchester Metropolitan University

The Greater Manchester Youth Justice University Partnership and the participatory youth practice framework

Anne-Marie Day, University of Salford

Children friendly youth justice for children in care: why the voice of the child suggests that this is not the case

3. Perspectives on youth justice supervision

Dr Diana Johns, University of Melbourne

A socio-ecological approach to 'child friendly' youth justice

Dr Caroline Lanskey, University of Cambridge

The experience and practice of youth justice in rural settings

Ali Wigzell, University of Cambridge

Youth justice supervision and the supervisory relationship

4. Children's complex offending and adversity

Dr Catherine Naughton, University of Limerick

Understanding complex youth offending: The Greentown research project

Dr Alex Chard, YCTCS Ltd.

Childhood adversity and offending

5. Children and court

Kate Aubrey-Johnson, Youth Justice Legal Centre and a youth justice-experienced young person

Can children receive a fair trial?

Carmen D'Cruz, Centre for Justice Innovation

Enhancing problem-solving practice in the youth court

6. Resettlement

Kate Bulman, Thinking Through Fatherhood and a young dads peer mentor

Developing continuity of care for young fathers in the youth justice system: a case study for improving current models of practice

Pippa Goodfellow, Beyond Youth Custody, Nacro and Morgan Price, No Cracks

Lessons from Youth in Focus

7. Childhood criminal records

Chris Stacey, Unlock and Jen Twite, Just for Kids Law

How can England and Wales achieve a child-friendly criminal record disclosure system?

Claire Sands

A comparative study of childhood criminal record regimes

8. Youth custody and education

Nina Champion, Prisoners' Education Trust

What does child-friendly education in custody look like?

Adeela ahmed Shafi, University of Gloucestershire

Engaging young people who offend with education in a secure custodial setting